who have gone home to God. May they rest in Christ's eternal light and peace.

The death of Jesus was not the end of his power and presence, for he was raised up by the power of God. Nor did it mark the end of the disciples' union with him. After Jesus had appeared to them and when they received the gift of the Spirit, they became apostles of the good news to the ends of the earth. In the face of poverty and persecution they transformed human lives and formed communities which became signs of the power and presence of God. Sharing in this same resurrection faith, contemporary followers of Christ can face the struggles and challenges that await those who bring the gospel vision to bear on our complex economic and social world. ~ Economic Justice for All

The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings. And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will.

- Romans 8:26-27

BIBLE RESEARCH

See what you can discover for yourself about the background to the readings.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

This reading mentions that Jews were staying in Jerusalem for the Jewish feast of Pentecost. What did that feast celebrate?

Jews came to the feast from many areas - practically all over the known world. See if you can find what areas some of the unfamiliar names refer to. For example, where was Parthia?

Why did these people come to Jerusalem? What was there in Jerusalem to make people go there for the great festivals?

How had it come about that the Jewish people were spread among so many nations? What had happened in their history to make that happen?

News & Updates

Greeting my fellow parishioners. So, did you all celebrate the "Rogation Days"? I know! Right, what is a rogation day? My reaction as well, and this is what I found. The Rogation Days are traditional occasions of prayer that occur on April 25th and on the 3 days leading up to Ascension Thursday. Why you ask? Well, their purpose is to ask God to bestow His mercy on us, to make the harvest of the earth abundant, and to protect us from disasters. The word rogation comes from the Latin word rogare, which means "to plead".

The Rogation Days are of ancient origins in the Church, as you would guess. They are no longer obligatory in the Church, although some parishes do observe them in some way. The ceremonies could include a procession around the perimeter of the parish and a blessing of the land, during which the Litany of the Saints is sung. A special Mass with the liturgical color of violet follows. The ceremonies are an impressive reminder of God's care for us and our dependence on Him in all aspects of our lives, including practical earthly things. Rogations are, moreover, a method of entrusting to God those things we rely on but can't control, like the weather. It offers us the chance to offload our worry, "to cast all our cares upon Him", as St. Peter says in his first letter, "because He cares for us". I could go on, but I only have so much room available to me. So I hope you appreciated this bit of information, but that's it for now. Amen!

Please don't forget to print out your Scholarship application available on our site KoC12710.org. Please don't wait until the last minute, you know how time flies. Deadline is May 29.

Men of our parishes, young and old and everyone in between, come join us for coffee and pastry, along with prayer, formation and fellowship.
At St. Mark's it is the first Sunday of the month at the rectory, 9:15 to 10:15 between Masses.
At St. Brigid/Assumption it will be the second Saturday from 8 to 9 am at the rectory/offices of St. Brigid.

May God's blessings and graces fill your hearts,
